First Friday is February 2nd. If you can spend an hour with the Lord, please sign the book in the Narthex. It begins after the 8:30am Mass and concludes with Benediction at 4:45pm.

New year, new you? Resolve to pray more in 2018 with other young adults! Have some big decisions coming up? Want a way to prayerfully consider the choices you make every day? Need some time away from it all to take stock? This is YOUR retreat! The Spirit@Work Retreat provides young adults (20s and 30s) with the tools to prayerfully reflect on the major and minor decisions of their lives to consider how their current choices impact their ability to follow God. This retreat is presented by Catholic Young Adult Ministry in the Diocese of Memphis in partnership with Charis, February 2-4 at The Country Place. For more information about the retreat and to register, visit <http://cyamemphis.org/blog/spiritatwork2018/>.

Mike will be providing information to allow for a better understanding of this beautiful experience. This is the perfect opportunity for those that have never been or do not get to go as often as they'd like, to attend! Please contact Janna Dominguez at 652-2898 with any questions.

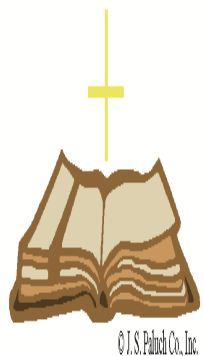

Join us for a five (5) week Lenten Study between the Sunday Masses beginning February 18, 9:45-10:45am in the Family Life Center, classroom A. Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession explores the grace and healing offered in Confession and shows how this sacrament of mercy reveals the depth and bounty of God's love.
